JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE RESULT OF FORNEY'S SOUTHERN TOUR.

Within the last few weeks, it has been quite the fashion for Radical editors of the North to visit the South, where they all seem to have met with very flattering receptions. One of the first to go was, we believe, Mr. Medill, of the Chicago Tribune, an able editor, who had probably done more than any other editor in the Northwest to excite popular feeling against the South and to bring upon the people of that section the unjust and oppressive measures under which they are and have long been suffering. He was kindly and handsomely received wherever he went, especially in Mobile. In his intercourse with the prominent Democrats of that city, he stated frankly that he had been greatly mistaken as to Southern views and feelings and had consequently committed errors in his paper, but that he would at once retify the wrongs he had done. He did, in his editorial correspondence, change his style and tone considerably, but we couldn't see that the change was at all adapted to do the South any good. He denounced the carpet-baggers as a wretched nuisance, with which the South did not have and ought not to have any patience, but, in order to keep his bitter partisanship above suspicion, he made the false and absurd declaration, that carpet-baggism was "a legacy of President Johnson" to the South, and he suggested no mode in which he would have the correction or the mitigation of the curse effected or attempted. He hinted not at any remedy or palliation. He was willing that the causes which had operated and were operating so disastrously should remain at work. He hinted no doubt or misgiving as to the expediency and wisdom of any one of the long and dark series of ultra Radical measures that he and his party had supported, and, up to this time, he has published no word implying a doubt that everything which the Radical party has done and everything which it contemplates to yard the South is right and proper. He is gentle enough in language, but harsh in policy. He would have the Southern people believe that only under tyranny and oppression can their prosperity and greatness be permanently established. Did the leading Democrats of the South dream that they were securing so valuable a friend by their liberal attentions and elegant hospitalities?

After the editor of the Chicago Tribune came Col. Forney, of the Philadelphia Press and Washington Chronicle, and his friends. Among all the malignant defamers and villifiers of the South Forney had, for four years, been pre-eminent. There had been no clamor against the South in which his voice had not been loudest and shrillest. No policy of hate or vengeance against the South had ever been proposed which he had not supported. No Southern abasement, humiliation, degradation had ever been invented that he had failed to recommend as right and just. He had never hesitated to take part with the worst Southern negroes against the best Southern white men. He had never in any case recognized a Southern negro as wrong or a Southern Democrat as right. But, as we said, he and a number of his Radical friends recently made up their minds to take a Southern tour. We could not help thinking that such an enterprise on their part involved an amount of effrontery truly amazing, and we wondered what would happen. They set forth with a grand flourish of trumpets, causing proclamation everywhere to be made that it was their purpose to do justice to the unhappy South, and to place her right in the eyes of the North and of mankind. The great and afflicted South has a heart, which, although covered with deep wounds, leaps forth with rest kindness to even seeming kindness. Forney and his friends were greeted everywhere throughout their tour not as the past but as the future benefactors of the South. Wherever they went, loud cries of welcome were raised. They were greeted and feasted.—Speeches were made to them in the name and behalf of municipalities. At every point, the honor and favor of their stay for the longest possible time were solicited. It seemed as if enough could not be done to show the enthusiastic popular appreciation of their valued presence. More than once we ventured to insinuate very decidedly to our Southern friends what we thought of their manifestations, and some of them, especially out of the cities, spoke very plainly upon the subject, but the glorification of the Northern itinerants continued generally without abatement to the end of their tour. One thing however may be said in extenuation of the unworthy spirit exhibited by the Southern people: having suffered and still suffering fearfully from the misrepresentations of their political and sectional enemies, one of the chief of whom was then among them with the avowed intent of reporting for the information of the North what he might see and hear, they could not, even from natural feelings of resentment, easily resist the inclination to endeavor by every means in their power to bring about the removal of the prejudices and antipathies that existed against them. But they soon saw the mortifying result of all the efforts that had taxed their pride if not their self respect so severely. Mr. Forney, by the letters that he wrote in regard to them, injured them to the extent of his influence instead of rendering them the benefits they had expected from him. They were making every exertion to secure immigration from the North, deeming it absolutely vital to their interests, but he warned the people, that, if they associate themselves together and go in such numbers as to form communities of their own, depending upon each other for business and social enjoyments, as the Southern people would not admit them to terms of social equality or willingly have anything to do with them as merchants or the followers of any kind of business whatever.—All of the Southern papers say that this is utterly false, and certainly no falsehood could be calculated to inflict upon the South a deeper and deadlier injury. The author of it says in his last Southern letter, although similar statements of his have been repeatedly and in the strongest terms contradicted by Southern papers: "In all the reconstructed States the war upon the white Republicans is unscrupulous, whether they are native or new comers. They have much to endure, and when I see how much they are persecuted in business, in character, and in every relation in life, I realize what a great work they have in hand and how much they deserve the countenance of the Government and their compatriots in the North. Most of these men are citizens of exalted worth. All of them could purchase ease by submission to their enemies; but they are controlled by sincere convictions, and they stand to their guns." The writer goes on to say that the immigrants to the South and the native Republicans can be sustained "only by the ever-present aid of the General Government," and he italicises the remark in order to impress it as deeply as possible upon the minds of his readers. He insists that the General Government shall keep armed occupation of the South.

And this is the result of Forney & Co's famous Southern expedition, from which the Southern people, cut off, alas, from hope in so many other quarters, have ventured to expect so much. It is for this that they have cajoled and flattered and feasted and fêted, and pampered an old, unprincipled, malicious, and remorseless enemy, rendering him such attentions as might appropriately be called almost abject in their character.—They thought that they were doing what was best, but we trust that they have learned from their last bitter and disgusting experience what they should have known from previous experiences scarcely less bitter and disgusting.

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

CARPET-BAG MERCY.

Charity to the poor and mercy to the helpless, are Christian virtues the exercise of which are pleasing to both God and man.

When Heaven and the Chatham Railroad shower riches upon the carpet-bag Editor of the Standard, he should do something to aid the cause of charity, by helping the poor and needy.

We shall say nothing to check Gen. Littlefield's care, kindness and pity for the poor and unfortunate, but the good people of Wake, about Fishdam, insists that he should mix a little discretion with his mercy, compassion, pity and charity.

No people go beyond the people of Fishdam in relieving the sufferings of the needy, in giving help to the weak and forgiveness to the wicked. Yet, on yesterday Gen. Littlefield gave all Fishdam and upper Wake a lesson of love for the poor, and good will for the unfortunate, which they did not relish. They did not sing with Hood,

> Alas! for the rarity
> Of Christian charity.

But they actually sighed for the prodigacy of Littlefield's mercy.

William Mangum and Willie Pennington, negroes of the League, were, yesterday, released from jail, by Gen. Littlefield's going bail for their appearance at Court. These two felons had broken open the dwelling house of Solomon J. Allen, and robbed it of everything valuable, which they could carry away. No neighbor would go their bail—they were properly in jail where they should have remained.

Even Judge Tourgee has been heard to say, from the bench, that a community or county can make money by keeping such men in jail, and taxing themselves to pay the prison fees. On this principle he acted and sentenced Solomon Craig to twelve months labor in the Penitentiary for stealing a sheet, and a very small one at that.

Solomon was a most notorious thief, and, hence, the severity of the punishment.—For want of a Penitentiary, Solomon will serve out his time in jail, at the expense of the people of Orange.

Mr. Allen thinks if Littlefield had brought to bear proper influences upon his brother Leaguers he might have forced them to disclose the whereabouts of his stolen jewelry and bonds, which have not as yet been recovered. A portion of the property was found upon them.

If the General had given William and Willie that brotherly grip of the hand, which none understand but those of the League, and they declared he would not go bail until they discovered the whereabouts of the jewelry and the bonds, Mr. Allen would have recovered them. But, possibly, that would have involved the detection of some other brother of the League, into whose hands the stolen goods had passed.

Soon after the General's liberated friends, William and Willie, committed the burglary at Mr. Allen's, the Store house of Mr. J. J. Ferrell's was broken open and robbed.

Gen. Littlefield ought to understand that each neighborhood can manage its own affairs better than he can. He may manage the Penitentiary or the Governor, or even the Legislature, with the aid of a well kept bar, but he is over taxed when, in addition to these weighty matters, he undertakes to control small matters of distant neighborhoods. It may all be sport and political gain to the General and his party, but it is death and destruction to the energy, enterprise, and industry of the country.

Four years of war and three years of reconstruction, larceny, arson and burglary, have reduced the people to poverty and distress. They feel the need of some security in the enjoyment of the little they have left.

In many portions of the country, where the Leagues most flourish, sheep and hogs have almost disappeared. Men, who have raised pork and wool for market, have resolved to abandon all efforts to any longer do so, and instead of raising pork enough, and to spare, they are now buying, and must continue to do so, so long as the Leagues flourish, and their black members subsist by stealing instead of working.

We trust this article will not be regarded as an invasion of the "social circle." We should not have said this much but for the just indignation manifested by citizens of Fishdam, on yesterday, at the conduct of Gen. Littlefield, in turning two felons loose upon them, who subsist by plunder instead of labor.

THE MAILS.

There is great complaint of irregularity in the mails, and failure of the Sentinel to reach subscribers. What we heard yesterday will account for it. The mail pouch or bag for Baltimore went as far as Portsmouth, and returned next day, and was finally found by a citizen and returned to the Post Office in this City. Telegraphic dispatches from Baltimore, inform correspondents in Raleigh that, letters mailed here three days ago had not reached that City. The fault is supposed to be with Route Agents, who are loyal.

COTTON.—A gentleman from the East informs us that some farmers have replanted their cotton a second time. Portions of Alabama have suffered worse than North Carolina. In middle and north Alabama the ice on the 12th of April was said to be a quarter of an inch thick.

Correspondence.

We reluctantly give place to the correspondence between the President of the North Carolina Railroad and Mr. Barnum, late Editor of the Giraffe.

The correspondence is not of a pacific character, nor has it any of the quality of classic taste. We do not think the language used has any of the easy idiomatic elasticity of the Giraffe, but is symptomatic of the style of Doctor Grisom, as manifested in his late card in the Standard.

If we may indulge in a little light criticism on the style of all of these gentlemen, we would suggest, that more elegance and less force of expression would add much to their style; and their reputations suffer less by the assaults of their enemies than by their own violent vindication of them.

ATLANTA, GA., May 25, 1869.

MR. EDITOR:—This morning I came in possession of the Standard, dated May 20th, containing the following:

"THE NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD AND THE LIVE GIRAFFE.—We have received from President Smith the following letters for publication, which shows very plainly the motives which induced the proprietors of the Live Giraffe to attack the management of the North Carolina Railroad.—Those papers who were malicious enough to copy the article from the Giraffe will now feel ashamed. Without further comment we give the letters—the first one being written before the attack was made, the latter afterwards:

RALEIGH, N. C., April 12*th*, 1869.

W. A. SMITH,
President N. C. Railroad, Company Shops:

DEAR SIR: You will please pardon us for again making application for an Annual Pass, and the privilege of publishing your Schedule. By reference to the Giraffe you will see that already three Roads have extended the same to us—Raleigh and Gaston, Petersburg Railroad and Seaboard Railroad.

It will be a very great favor to us, besides we will speak of your road in terms commendatory through the Animal.

An early answer will very greatly oblige,
Very Respectfully,
Your Ob't Serv'ts,
BARNUM & WHITAKER.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 13*th*, 1869.

ALBERT JOHNSON, Esq:
Supt. N. C. Railroad:

DEAR SIR: I shall have occasion to pass over your road on Monday next on my way to Atlanta, Georgia.

If you desire to extend to me the courtesies usually awarded to members of the press by sending me a free pass, you can never do it at a better time.

I am, &c.,
Respectfully,
FRANK BARNUM.
Editor Live Giraffe."

My connection with The Live Giraffe, as Editor and Proprietor, having ceased, I would like, through your columns, to say a few words relative to the above letters and comments from the Standard.

In regard to the first letter, I have only to say that it was written without my advice, knowledge or consent. I learned subsequently however, from Mr. Whitaker, that Mr. Smith had promised him an advertisement for his road, and also an Annual Pass for the Proprietors of the Giraffe. I was also shown a letter from Mr. Smith in which he eulogized our paper in the highest terms, wished us every success, and gave us the assurance of his good will and assistance, whenever we chose to avail ourselves of his services. Mr. Whitaker, presuming these assurance to have been made in good faith, was induced to write him the above letter.

The second letter, written and signed by myself, being dated seven days after the publication of my trip to Durhams, (which the Standard calls an attack upon the management of the North Carolina Railroad,) may be considered by the intelligent Editor of the Standard and the sagacious manager of the North Carolina Railroad, as a motive for the attack; but I have not the remotest idea that there is to be found outside of these two notorious institutions, a single person sufficiently "non compos" to entertain for a moment so absurd and ridiculous a notion.

Neither is it necessary for me to inform any one who knows me, that I did not write for a pass with the least idea or expectancy that Mr. Johnson would, or could grant it even had he desired, for it is too well and generally known that he, as well as the President, are somewhat restricted in their privileges by the board of directors—their positions being more that of menials than officers, (all things considered a mean position,) and as Mr. Johnson had on several occasions before intimated that he would give me a pass, and had neglected to keep his promise, I did not for a moment expect that he would take the trouble even to consider or answer my letter. I was mistaken however—I had given him altogether too much credit for good sense: for he not only took me to be in earnest and answered my letter himself, but probably feeling his inability to maintain the meanness of his position he referred it to his superior officer, President Smith, who likewise answered it. Perhaps Smith will pass it on up to the board of directors and they will answer it. I would certainly be pleased to hear from that august body!

In consideration of the many good promises made me by Mr. Johnson (which he has never kept,) I will not expose the nonsensical foolishness contained in his letter by giving it further publicity.

The following is the reply of President Smith:

COMPANY SHOPS, N. C.,
May 14th, 1869.

Mr. Frank Barnum, Editor of Giraffe, Raleigh, N. C.:

SIR: Your letter of the 13th inst. to Mr. Johnson, Superintendent of this Road, has been refered to me. You begetill for a pass. You have been begging for a pass for several months. You have been refused time and again. And to continue to beg for a pass after writing the article of 6th inst. in your dirty sheet, shows your impudence only equals your meanness. And that you are by nature a coward and a liar.

W. A. SMITH, PRES.

Had Mr. Smith the reputation of a gentleman or even a common blackguard, I would call him to a personal account, but his would be insults, coming from a source entirely beneath my notice, and are only in harmonious keeping with the reputation of one who kept a pack of dogs with which to hunt down Confederate refugees and deserters from the army during the late rebellion.

Thank God! I have never yet been disgraced with his acquaintance, have never seen him but once—have never spoken to him,—have never written him a word in my life,—have never asked or begged him for a free pass over his Road, and consequently have never been refused by him time and again, as he lyingly says, and I would further say that until after the publication of my trip to Durhams, I nor any one else, connected with the Giraffe, have asked for a pass over the N. C. R. R., except in consideration for advertising their Schedule, and in reply to which Smith and Johnson both have every time promised to give it; therefore unless lying is a refusal we have never been refused.

President Smith as a Railroad Manager or a gentleman, is a dead failure, as a reconstructed blackguard, coward, and liar he is a perfect success.

Hoping that some outlandish hole may yet be discovered where such beings may find their proper level and blow their horn.

I am, &c.
FRANK BARNUM.

For the Sentinel.

THOMPSONVILLE, N. C. May 24.

Mr. Editor:—The Standard of last week contained an article headed "Rockingham," which is considered here as doing great injustice to this community, and especially the two young gentlemen there named and insinuated as having taken part in the recent Kuklux raid near this place. That the raid did take place, there is sad evidence in the backs of the two inoffensive negroes who were whipped; but no one here has any idea that either Mr. Waynick or Mr. Thompson had any connection whatever in the affair. The Standard says "the evidence was sufficient to bind them over." In the case of Mr. Jesse Thompson the trial was postponed at his request, and in Mr. Waynick's case there was not the least particle of evidence against him, and the only reason for his being placed under arrest was the merest suspicion; and upon the trial, on last Saturday, an attempt was made to postpone and bind him over again upon the same grounds, but one of the Magistrates who had at least more respect for the opinion of mankind and decency, would not consent, and an investigation was had, when he proved himself entirely clear, beyond the shadow of a doubt.

The character of these gentlemen will bear a great deal closer inspection than that of the paid informer of the Standard. The people of this community are, as a mass, opposed to lynch law, and no more law abiding citizens than ours can be found.—We deprecate anything of the kind, and in all cases desire the law of justice to take its course.

Please insert this in behalf of the injured gentlemen and the citizens of Township No. 1, Rockingham County.

Very respectfully,
WITNESS.

FOREIGN NEWS.

GREAT BRITIAN.

The Alabama Question Still Under Consideration by the London Times.

LONDON, May 24.—The Times to day continues the discussion of the American claims. It argues that the depredations committed by the Alabama are identical with cases of wrongful capture, and cannot be removed from that category on the ground that an unfriendly spirit was shown in this country previous to the occurrences. Whatever direction our sympathies may have taken, it cannot be taken into account before any international tribunal. Let the question of misdirection of sympathy be settled by reflection and cool communings with conscience on both sides, and the alleged injuries be measured and appraised before the proper tribunal.

Great Precautions Taken by the Cork Police to Prevent an Outbreak.

CORK, May 24.—The police here are taking unusual precautions to prevent an outbreak. Several houses have been searched for concealed arms.

FRANCE.

The Elections Quietly Progressing—Heavy Vote—Some of the Candidates Elected.

PARIS, May 24.—The elections throughout the country have been most orderly.—The vote is a very heavy one. More than half the electors in Paris cast their votes on Sunday, the first day of the voting.—Among the candidates for the Corps Legislatif whose elections are certain are MM. Bancel, Picard, Cambetta, Simon, and Pedetin. MM. Jules Favre, Garmer, Pages, and Thiers are probably elected. M. Oliver has been defeated.

HUNGARY.

Approaching Trial of a Prince for the Crime of Murder.

PESTH, May 24.—Prince Karageorgewich, who has been in prison charged with complicity in the murder of Prince Michael of Servia in June last, has been released on bail, in order that he may prepare his defence on the trial soon to take place.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, May 24.—The Parliament of the Zollverin will meet in this city on the 31st of June.

AUSTRIA.

An Anti Russian Demonstration on an Austrian Appointment.

VIENNA, May 24.—It is rumored that Czartoryski, the descendant of a famous patriot of Poland, is to be appointed governor of Galicia. This is looked upon as an anti-Russian demonstration on the part of the Austrian government.

JEWISH CEREMONY OF DIVORCE.—Mr. Bernard Burnstine, a well-known pawnbroker, of Washington City, D. C., was divorced from his wife on Thursday, according to the Jewish ceremony founded upon the scripture. The interesting ceremony took place at the residence of the parties and was conducted by the Rabbis Phillips and Michler, of New York, who came on expressly for the purpose. The Star says:

"The formal separation took place about as follows: Rabbi Phillips having taken his position, with Rabbi Michler and Mr. Jacobson, the reader of the synagogue here, on either side, the parties were brought in, and facing the rabbis certain passages of the Pentateuch were read, as also the divorcement article on the parchment. The wife was then called forward and her face uncovered and her hands were placed together, the thumbs upward and extended. Rabbi Phillips asked certain questions of the husband which were answered, and placed the parchment in his hands and he advanced towards her, placing it in her hands, and in turn the rabbi took it. Messrs. Jacobson and Muenheim having attested their names as witnesses to file with the records of the church, the ceremony here closed, and shortly after Mrs. B. left the room.

"It is said that Mrs. Burnstine is well provided for in the writing of divorcement, and that there are no children. By this ceremony, founded on Deuteronomy XXIV: 1, 2, 3 and 4, the parties are seperated and free—the husband to marry another at any time, and the wife to marry after 91 days have passed, but not to a descendant of the tribe of Levi. The civil laws, however, will not permit either party to marry again unless a divorce is obtained by the regular process in the courts."—Balt. Sun.

The people of Albemarle, Va., are going to hold a meeting at the court-house, on the 7th of June, to nominate Conservative candidates for the Legislature.

STATE NEWS.

A SERIOUS AFFAIR.—On Saturday evening about two hours after dark, Nash Booth, a white employee at the water tank of Durhams station, having been turned off by the agent, accused a very worthy man named Abner Fletcher of being privy to his dismissal. Fletcher denied the charge, but Booth continuing to abuse him—he knocked him down, remarking as he walked off, "now Nash behave yourself." Booth sprung to his feet and drew a knife followed Fletcher and cut him in several different places, stabbing him in the back to the hollow. It was dark and the crowd knew nothing of the knife till Fletcher cried out, "He is stabbing me; he is killing me!"—Booth is now in jail at this place. Fletcher is not expected to live.—Hillsboro Recorder.

SCENE AT A CHURCH.—The Rev. (so-called) Mr. Caulis, yankee teacher of a negro school at Mebanesville, came to the Presbyterian Church a few minutes before service began—it being communion Sabbath. The Rev. Mr. Caulis took his seat, his wife on one side and a negro man on the other, in a pew among the whites. Murmurings and whispers among the congregation showed indignation on the rise towards rebellion. The Rev. Mr. Caulis frisked in his seat. In his No. 13's he stepped up to an officer of the church and proposed that the negro—though three fourth white and a perfect gentleman in his (Caulis) opinion—be allowed to leave the church. The officer replied that we did not choose, to have negro equality forced upon us and that the negro should certainly not sit among the whites; that if he desired to hear preaching he could be furnished with a seat outside where he could hear equally as well. This was accordingly done. In a short time several other negroes came up, but seeing the "three fourths white gentleman" sitting at the door, they indignantly turned on their heels and left. It was evidently a preconcerted plan by the Rev. Mr. Caulis (who wore the 13 shoes and frisked in his seat) to seat his negro equals among the whites.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Iron Railway Bridges crossing the two branches of the Cape Fear near this city are now completed with the exception of some little painting and laying a permanent track across each. The Wilmington and Weldon Railroad connection is entirely completed; that of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad will soon be finished on this side, the other end being already completed. The work upon the connection of the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad is progressing and fully 2½ miles of grading done. Three or four weeks' time will witness the completion of everything connected with the bridges.—Wil. Jour.

ARRIVED.—The steamship Wm. P. Clyde, Capt. Morgan, arrived in port yesterday from New York.—Ib.

CLEARED.—The steamship Fairbanks, Admiral Hunter, and Fanita, Capt. Freeman, both sailed for New York yesterday.—Ib.

House breakers seem to have ceased their operations for a time. We have passed one day without hearing of an affair of this character.—Ib.

M. C's.—Hons. Jno. A. Bingham, of Ohio, C. A. Eldridge, of Wisconsin, and Wm. Longbridge, of Iowa, members of the present Congress of the United States, arrived in this city last night and stopped at the Purcell House on their way south.—Ib.

STEAMER LUCILLE.—A telegram was received in this city yesterday, by Messrs. A. B. Shepperson & Co., the agents announcing that the Steamship Lucille, which was detained in Baltimore on account of repairs necessary to her machinery, and which prevented her from sailing on the regular day, Saturday, will leave Baltimore this afternoon. The Jas. A. Gary, will leave Saturday as usual. The Lucille will sail from this port on her return trip as soon as she can be discharged and reloaded—so there will be but little interruption to the regularity usually observed.—Ib.

STATE GEOLOGIST.—Prof. W. C. Kerr, State Geologist, arrived in our city yesterday, and is stopping at the Purcell House. We trust that his visit to our section will be prolonged some days, and that he will institute an examination into our soil, etc. Our agricultural friends have long desired a visit from the State Geologist and we trust that his coming may be productive of much benefit.—Ib.

DESTROYED.—Capt. Plummer of the W. C. & R. R. R. informs us that the crops along his route—particularly cotton—has been very seriously injured by the cold weather, and the hail Saturday last completed a ruin already in the last stage.—Wil. Star.

The festival given by the ladies of St. Thomas' Church proved a great success.—So says the Star.

THE CROPS.—Farmers in the neighborhood of Charlotte and surrounding country, represent their crops, except cotton, as in good condition and the prospect very promising. The gardens throughout the city are in beautiful order, and it is to be hoped there will be an abundance of good and healthy vegetables, in season. Of course we look forward with bright anticipations to the pleasant discharge of duty, when opportunities may be offered, to penn appropriate acknowledgments.—Char. Bulletin.

The Court was occupied all day Tuesday with the trial of Lichard Kendrick, charged with the killing of Robert Lowrie. The Grand Jury found a bill of man-slaughter, and upon that, he was put upon his trial.—Col. Bynum, State Solicitor, and Wilson and Vance for the defendent. Able and lengthy arguments were made by the Counsel on both sides, and the Jury, after being out twenty minutes, rendered a verdict of justifiable homicide. Mr. Kendrick is a good man, and well esteemed in his neighborhood, and this verdict was therefore gratifying to his numerous friends.

Mr. Lowrie was also highly esteemed by his neighbors, and the affair was deeply regretted by all, and by none more so than by Mr. Kendrick, as was evident by the remark made after finding that the blow was fatal. As it is, the verdict was righteous and all acquiesce in it.

Yesterday, the morning session of the Court was taken up in trying Williams, (colored,) for stealing J. R. Baker's mule. A verdict of guilty was rendered, and the Court sentenced him to twelve months imprisonment, and hard labor. Osborne and Vance appeared for the prisoner.—Carolina Times.

RATHER A STRANGE DECISION.—Samuel and Patsey, a loving couple enjoying the family name of Hill, were carried before the Special Court on the unpleasant charge of affray, and the case drew from the Judge a decision that to our unsophisticated ears sounded strange. He decided to try each on a charge on assault and battery, and further ruled that one could testify against the other.

Once place man and wife in direct opposition, and experience teaches us they will amicably settle matters, rather than a third party shall enter in and punish both; for the two agreed in their non criminating testimony and the case was dismissed.—Wil. Star.

Explanatory Drawing.—The Drawing by the Real and Personal Estate Agency, anxiously looked for by persons who had taken stock came off on Saturday, according to published programme. The weather was weeping, but the expectant people were not deterred by that, and went in numbers to Tucker Hall to watch the operation. A good deal of excitement was caused when the owners of lucky tickets claimed their prizes as their number was drawn.

J. M. Blair, Esq., of the Yarborough House, drew the $650 piano; Mr. Wesley Whitaker drew a $55 china set, and Mrs. Pepper, wife of the caterer, drew a $12 hearth rug. Very many of the tickets were sold out of town, and we have not the names of the holders. Every one was satisfied with the arrangements of the drawing, and this augurs well for the grand drawing of which this is explanatory."—Standard.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1869.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Darby & Co. vs. G. L. Tonneffski.

A certificate for shares of stock of the N. C. R. R., lost or mislaid.

O. S. Hayes, Chairman of the Committee, appointed to investigate the affairs of the old banks of the State announces that the committee will assemble in this city on the 6th of June next.

Read the advertisements of W. H. Jones & Co., announcing the sale of valuable real estate, a good milch cow and a comfortable dwelling, with two rooms, for rent.

SATURDAY MARKET.—Our friend Benj. Kirkham will have in market, on Saturday morning, some fine beef and a number of lambs,—butchered and dressed "all right." Give him a call.

Many of those persons who expected letters on yesterday at the Post-Office, were as we learn obstructed in their ingress and egress by the number of Freedmen, who sat and stood on the steps of the office. We were asked to call attention to the nuisance. Can the Mayor abate it.

NORTH CAROLINA REPORTS.—We are indebted to the Hon. S. F. Phillips for a copy of the Supreme Court Reports. The volume includes cases argued and determined at June Term 1868, and January Term 1869. The bar will be glad to receive the Reports as they contain decisions upon Code practice, Stay law and Homestead &c., &c.

The Court has never had a better Reporter, or the Reporter a better publisher than Nichols and Gorman.

THE Governor and Attorney General are both out of the Capital at present. There is less drinking, but still some drunkeness in the Capital. Let us have sobriety as well as peace.

J. T. BACKALAN, late keeper of the Republican Headquarters, left this morning for Halifax with a respite of 30 days for one of the Wade Ditcher murderers. Lucky for the League that their Grand President is also Grand Governor. Two of the Murderers will be executed to-morrow. The gallows seems to be thining out the Leaguers.

SEEKING LIGHT.—A lawyer in California orders a full set of reports of the Supreme Court of North Carolina. The opinions of Read, Dick and Settle will not be so much sought after as the opinions of Gaston, Nash and Ruffin.

Windy Billy Henderson has been acquitted of raule stealing and now talks of sending the Sheriff after those who keep up their talk about Darr's mule. Judge Tourgee had better hush. Next month the Heroes of America meet—Billy is their Grand Secretary, and now stands vindicated of mule stealing.

WE see in an exchange that societies for the prevention of loafing are being formed in some communities. We hope that organizations of a similar character will be at once formed in this city in order that its efficacy may be tested.

WE are glad to see that the papers West of us all speak hopefully of the peach and blackberry crops.

THE LATEST STYLE OF BOQUET.—Amid the profusion of flowers showered upon Dr. Craven, a few days since, at the conclusion of his Address to the Kenansville High School, one beautiful boquet was tied with genuine greenbacks, making a very handsome present.

WE see, by the Wilmington papers of yesterday, that copies of Mr. T. H. Hill's book of poems have been received in that city. The notices are handsome, paying compliments to the style in which the book is gotten up, and to the ability and poetical genius of the author.

It is somewhat singular that the book should make its appearance and be advertised for sale, in Wilmington, while the author, himself, has not, up to the present, received a single copy of it.

GRAND BALL.—We understand that arrangements are inaugurating to celebrate the close of the consolidation convention, to meet in this city on the 21 day of June, with a grand ball, at Lowthrop Hall.—Everything is proposed to be conducted on a magnificent scale.—Jour. of Com.

A man named Bragg was imprisoned in Jones County jail by Sheriff Colgrove, last Saturday, being charged with complicity with the party who stole Mr. Wilkie's mule some time since. He procured $6,000 bail, and is now at liberty.—Newbern Times.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The family of W. H. Romaine, of this city, were yesterday shocked to hear of his sudden death in New York.

Mr. Romaine has been out of health for a time, and, having once been a sea-faring man, decided to take a few trips to New York and return, on the steamers plying between this port and that city, thinking it would be beneficial to his health. He sailed on the steamer E. S. Terry last Friday, and died almost immediately on his arrival in New York.—Ib.

The Pall Mall Gazette mentions a religious sect in Russia called the Beslovesniki, or the Dumb. As soon as one enters this community he becomes dumb, or refuses to utter any articulate sounds. It would be well worth knowing how this sect propagates its doctrines.

A shooting match for $500 has been arranged at Chicago, between Captain Bogardus, of Illinois, and Abe Kiumer, the former to shoot from a wagon while in motion at twenty-five double and twenty-five single pigeons, at a distance of twenty yards, and the latter to shoot at the same number of birds at a distance of thirty yards, standing on the ground.

In the Nashville nominating convention yesterday there was a repetition of the disgraceful scenes of the previous day. It is now definitely arranged that both the opposing Radical candidates will run, with the odds largely in favor Senter.

GENERAL NEWS.

EARTHQUAKE IN MACON.—Earthquakes are rapidly ceasing to be novelties in this section. We learn from the Macon Telegraph, of Saturday, that a distinct, but short and sudden shock of an earthquake, was felt in that city on on last Friday, at about half past seven o'clock, p. m. The reporter of the Telegraph felt it whilst eating his "daily bread" at the supper table and thought it was the jar of a cannon which had been fired; but on inquiry was informed that it was the shock of an earthquake and that it had been felt in all portions of the city.

The rust is said to be making its appearance in some of the wheat fields of Halifax County, Va.

The New York World speaks of ice cream saloons with flirtation gardens annexed to them.

Shofferd, Tileston & Co. have established a new line between New York City and St. Domingo. The steamer Tybee, the pioneer of the line, will leave New York June 2.

Wednesday, June 2, will be observed by the Hollywood Memorial Association of Richmond, Va., as their memorial day.

Dr. Wm. F. Broaddus, during his recent trip South, collected $1,200 for the education of soldiers' children. His travelling expenses during the two months were but about $20. All the railroads were quite willing to grant him free passage.

Miss Matilda Newton, a seamstress, employed at Mr M. Slaughter's, was taken suddenly ill on Friday last and died in three hours. Cause of death supposed to be bursting of a blood vessel.—Fredericksburg News.

STATE DEPARTMENT.—A despatch received by the Secretary of State from our Consul in the Canary Islands states that the former duty on leaf and manufactured tobacco has been reimposed, viz: On leaf tobacco, one real vellon per pound; on manufactured tobacco and cigars, two reals vellon per pound. This tax was taken off during the revolution on those islands, and again imposed on the 5th of April last.

Judge Brady, of New York, has decided that a gas company has no legal right to threaten the removal of a metre or to cut off the gas supply of a house, in order to enforce the payment of a claim disputed by the consumer, and that money paid under such a threat can be recovered in the courts.

A citizen of King George county, Va., and his "intended" and their "attendants," came ten miles to Fredericksburg on the 20th, and found no military officer to issue his marriage license, and had to go home unmarried.

It is stated as a fact that speculators in Wisconsin have sold over and over again during the last twenty years five sections of land whose location is in Lake Winnebago, under at least twenty feet of water, and is still in the market. The price paid on some occasions has been as high as ten thousand dollars.

Anderson, president Rochester University, New York; Rev. R. L. Stanton, D. D., president Miami University, Ohio.

Rev. Dr. Patton has been reading a paper before the Historical Society of New Haven on the thrilling question, "Were the Hebrews Slaves in Egypt."

Max Strakosch has made it right with the United States of America by paying the tax which he fell out with that power about, a small fine, and costs.

A Boston paper calls for O'Baldwin, the Dirish, Jesuit, to beat the big drum at the Peace Jubilee. The drum is seven feet and a half in diameter and the O'Baldwin is nearly that in altitude.

Sumner locks himself up all day, and is supposed to be brewing some fresh oratorical mischief.

A letter from China says the inhabitants of Swatow and vicinity have formed a league against foreigners, and posted placards offering fifty dollars each for heads of Europeans.

Some two weeks ago Jerome E. Burris, of Chillicothe, Illinois, received a note warning him to leave town immediately.—Not heeding the warning, he died suddenly, and was buried by his family two hours thereafter. His body has been disintered, and presents evidence of having been poisoned. Suspicion rests upon his family.

A little daughter of Mr. Daniel Landes, living in this county, aged about five years, was accidently drowned on Friday last in the race of Dice's saw mill, near Burke's mill. Shortly after she was missed, her father went out to look for her, and soon discovered her floating on the mill race.—It is supposed that she had been playing on a board that was across the water and fell off of it.—Staunton Spectator.

MEMORIAL DAY IN CHARLOTTESVILLE. The Chronicle says:

A large number of persons turned out on Friday to decorate the Confederate graves, the number being variously estimated at from 500 to 1,000. Men, women and children were there, and all seemed to be fully impressed with the solemnity of the occasion, and to be anxious to do all possible honor to the memories of those brave men to whom they owe so much.

A large number of applications have been received by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue within the past few days from colored men in different parts of the country, for appointments to clerkships in his bureau. It is probable that one or two colored men will be appointed in the course of a few days. J. M. Langston, of Ohio, is strongly urging the claims of a colored friend of his from that State, and it is thought the appointment will be made, as requested by him.

Hon. John L. Thomas, of Baltimore, collector of the port, has had audience with the President and Secretary of the Treasury on the subject of the spoils of Federal office in that city.

CORRESPONDANCE.

NORTH CAROLINA LAND COMPANY,
Raleigh, May 26, 1869.

Messrs. Editors: Several designing persons, looking to their pecuniary interests only, have circulated reports prejudicial to the interests of the poor and hardworking colored people and others (who, unfortunately for the want of an education, are unable to examine for themselves) to the effect that the title of the lots purchased by them in the new town of Kingsland is imperfect.

Now we, the officers and directors of the North Carolina Land Company, will warrant and defend the said title to the same against the claims of all persons whatsoever, and we respectfully refer to the following certificate to confirm the same, the original being on file in our office.

GEO. LITTLE, President.
R. W. BEST, Sec. and Treas.
G. W. SWEPSON,
R. KINGSLAND,
A. J. BLEECKER.

RALEIGH, May 20, 1869.

K. P. BATTLE, ESQ:

Dear Sir: I have to state that Jeptha Horton and myself purchased of William Smith (free colored) his tract of land (less than 100 acres) lying in the vicinity of Raleigh, and not long afterwards sold it to John Hutchins, of Wake county, who paid the purchase money, and received a proper deed for the same about the year 1853.

I have conversed with Mr. Horton, and he thinks he and I both signed the deed, and that Smith's deed to us was at the time delivered over to Mr. Hutchins. Mr. Horton was the active agent in the purchase and sale of this property, and my own recollections at this late date of the entire transaction are very meagre and imperfect.

Yours, W. W. VASS.

The deed from Wm. Smith, barber, to W. W. Vass and Jeptha Horton in fee, is registered and dated February, 1853.

Wm. Smith bought of John Suggs in 1838 and 1826, as appears from the registry books.

BATTLE & SONS.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 17, 1869.

To the North Carolina Land Company:

We, the subscribers, take pleasure in stating that the land purchased by you is good, and free from all incumbrances. It formerly belonged to the late John Hutchins, and is known as the Billy Smith tract of land, near the Rock Quarry. It was given by will to J. Fab Hutchins, to do with as he might think best, and was sold by the Sheriff of Wake county for the said J. Fab. Hutchins' debts, and purchased by the undersigned. There is no will left by John Hutchins, deceased, giving said land to our children at the death of John Fab Hutchins. He, therefore, has no right whatever to said land, nor has any one else, except the North Carolina Land Company, who purchased the same from us in good faith, to whom we made a good and sufficient warrantee deed, and will guarantee the title of said land to them against the claims of all persons whatsoever.

J. P. H. RUSS.
E. A. RUSS.

OFFICE OF BATTLE & SONS,
Raleigh, N. C., May 26, 1869.

We are satisfied, after careful examination, that the North Carolina Land Company has a good fee simple title to the land bought of Col. J. P. H. Russ, late the property of John F. Hutchins, devised to him in fee by the late John Hutchins.

The facts stated in the foregoing paper, signed by Col. and Mrs. Russ, appear of record in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Wake county, and of the Public Register of said county.

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES

SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

From the Asheville News and Farmer.

CORN RAISING—A NEW SYSTEM

Mr. Editor :—In advancing a new idea upon the subject of raising corn, in this region, when every farmer supposes he has perfected the system, I have no doubt I shall be met with scoffing and doubt. But when I consider that every innovation or improvement upon old systems or notions have always been received in that manner, by a certain anti-progressive class, always to be found in every occupation in life, I feel emboldened to risk an account of my three years experience in corn raising, without manure, which has proved to me that it can be raised with less labor than has been spent upon it heretofore; especially on loose or corn land:

1st. As in all cases, if you wish a good crop, prepare the land well before planting.

2d. With a shovel plow open the rows and drop the seed to your own liking.—Cover by running round, forming a full ridge on the planting furrow.

3d. At the springing up of the corn, rake off the top of the ridge with a sharp-toothed rake, removing all trash and the hard crust of earth. This is a quick and easy operation and better adapted to the young and growing crop than any other mode of cleaning and pulverizing the soil.

4th. Break the middles with two furrows, leaving the ridge as a space necessary for the rooting and quick manuring of the grain.

5th. Two weeks afterwards use the hoe in nursing and keeping the corn row clean. Two weeks after the hoeing, run three more furrows, after which hoe as ordinary for cleaning, leaving the corn on a small ridge, and your crop will be sure. A third plowing will be beneficial to those roots, which always sustain the perfecting ear, and will insure the maturing of large corn as early as the old plan will the small or early corn. My arguments for adopting the above plan are:

The ridge preserves the seed from sobbing or rotting in a cold wet spring; you give the plant a deep root to guard against danger from too dry weather; and uninterrupted growth, not breaking the lateral or main roots. These advantages will be found very important to the crop, if fairly tested.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but Actuaries, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he roots into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

$1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled; and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,550.00
Total Premiums,	356,117.09

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 699
" New England Mutual, 343
" Phœnix Mutual, 235
" Massachusetts Mutual, 312
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 10th year, 1,260
And in its 20th year, 2,842
this latter being 690 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R.!

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of shippers, North and south, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the state near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the Low Price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all sruries, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters or approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
